We're a French couple; after more than one year in the whole Americas, we are currently continuing our travel in Europe. We don't have plans or final destination. We travel over our wishes!

The bicycle, we've been using it for quite some time. While living in Paris it was our way to move everyday.

For the last 5 years, Lambert has discovered himself as a bike traveler (he rode up to Scandinavia and around France)... and since he met Delphine he gave her the bike-travelling virus.

We like to take our time, take a few stops for watercolor painting, have a rest in our hammocks, enjoy beautiful landscapes, and between all those awesome activities ride our bikes a little bit .).

We also like to discover new people, cook, share recipes and eat together with our hosts with a good beer in the hand.

We hope you will like to have us over and see you soon!

Un grand MERCI pour cet accueil chaleureux après une matinée pluvieuse.

Heureusement qu'un rayon de soleil a éclairé la belle balade dans la région.

Au plaisir de se retrouver peut-être autour d'une "vraie" palette des rois !
